Coro is mobilizing the Bay Area community in a new way this spring with our Leading Locally Civic Engagement Series. Including our flagship event, the Leadership Luncheon, Leading Locally is a series of four non-partisan educational opportunities for Bay Area citizens to connect the dots from civic interest to engagement.

Benefits of sponsoring Leading Locally include an opportunity for partners to:

Underscore a commitment as a champion of a thriving democracy on the local level

Provide employees with civic learning opportunities by participating in events

Support Coro's work of strengthening our democracy by training groups of people to work and lead across differences

Joining a Municipal Board or Commission
Wednesday, April 19, 6:00pm - 8:00pm

Learn from members of local government commissions about how to be part of local government without running for office. Panelists include:

- Aimee Brown, Board Member of San Francisco's Treasury Oversight Committee
- David Chasteen, Commissioner for The San Francisco Veterans Affairs Commission
- Christine Johnson, SPUR's San Francisco Director and a San Francisco Planning Commissioner
- Nayeli Maxson, Appointee to Oakland Community Development District Board (Central) and Coro Alumna
- Andrea Shorter, President of San Francisco's Commission on the Status of Women (replacing Emily Murase on this panel).

Leading Locally - 22nd Annual Coro Leadership Luncheon
Friday, May 12, 11:00am - 1:30 pm

Hear from prominent city leaders about how they get things done and collaborate to effect positive change. Speakers include:

- Hon. Libby Schaaf, Mayor of Oakland
- Hon. Tom Tait, Mayor of Anaheim
- Hon. Michael Tubbs, Mayor of Stockton
- Ezekiel Gorrocino, Government Relations & Policy Associate, Center for Responsible Lending
- Mina Kim, PM Anchor and Forum Friday Host, KQED
- Grace Pang, Senior, MetWest High School

Running for Local Office
Wednesday, May 24, 6:00pm - 8:00pm

Engage with others who have run for local office, learn the ups and downs, and explore if it's right for you.

How Political Parties Work at the Local Level
Wednesday, June 14, 11:30am - 1:30pm

Learn how to navigate the central committee of your chosen political party. Join local political committee leaders to understand how party infrastructure works and how to get involved.
